

Notice of Changes on the General Terms and Conditions (“General Terms”) governing the entire business relationship between customers and HSBC, effective from 15 October 2018 (“Effective Date”)

Please carefully read the information below to ensure you understand the changes made and how they may affect you.

Important information

This notice contains information relevant to some changes made to the General Terms for customers using bank accounts and other banking services of The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Bangkok Branch (“HSBC”).

The changes have been made for your strict compliance to laws and regulations on measures to prevent Thai Baht Speculation. An emphasis has also been placed on the procedures we apply to prevent breach of such laws and regulations

The revised General Terms will apply to your bank accounts from the Effective Date. You will be able to download the revised terms and conditions at <http://www.business.hsbc.co.th/en-gb/th/generic/download-centre>.

A summary of the changes is set out below:

PART B: Terms and Conditions for Opening and Maintenance of Bank Accounts (applicable to bank accounts)

- To mitigate risks from any breach to the measures to prevent Thai Baht speculation, we have updated the terms and conditions applicable to Non-resident Baht Account for general and/or trade/services purposes (NRBA) and Non-resident Baht Account for investment in securities and other financial instruments purposes (NRBS).

Should you require any further information, please contact your relationship manager.
